

Brava Strada

FROM SACRAMENTO STREET, through its window, Brava Strada looks cool, austere. But once inside you feel the warmth. Indeed, its adobe walls and stark, simple styling give the place a desert feeling. And, thanks to owners Star Pierce and Jahan Ra'ed, the shop's a chameleon—one minute a fashion boutique with fabulous leathers, knits, and jewelry, the next a gallery showcasing local artists. Sometimes the store even becomes a performance space for actors or dancers. Bravo.
